

CALL FOR 3D ARTISTS!

Port City Pottery & Fine Crafts is offering an outreach program to support and give exposure to emerging artists in the field of 3D art.

What we're offering:

- One month guest membership
- Waiver of commission, membership fees for the month
- Fourth Friday Artist of the Month shared display space with member artist
- One display unit dedicated to your work
- Inclusion in regular social media promoting gallery

What you need to do:

- Complete application process found on portcitypottery.com. Next to your name please indicate "EMERGING ARTIST PROGRAM"
- If your work looks like a good match, you'll be asked to bring in some samples and meet with a co-op member to discuss your pieces
- If selected, you'll come in to set up your display area with a member. The member will help you price and code your work for sales. You'll need to remove work at end of month to make room for the next artist.
- You'll need to provide a brief bio for PR, and may want to create your own social media promotions

Port City Pottery & Fine Crafts is a co-op gallery in the Cotton Exchange sharing the work of artists in ceramics, wood, jewelry, glass, basketry, and fiber arts, ranging from traditional to modern interpretations. PCPFC has been in the Cotton Exchange for sixteen years and participates in the monthly Fourth Friday Gallery Walk.

